

We are looking for

Teacher trainer for freelance based projects

Key responsibilities:

- Planning and delivering presentations to help promote our ELT print and digital products throughout Taiwan. This will include promotional presentations to help gain adoptions of our products
- Planning and delivering teacher training based on our ELT products. This will include user training sessions for our customers and also more general / methodological training sessions for our customers and a ELT events and conferences

Qualifications:

- A highly motivated and professional person with good communication and people skills who is able to work independently and flexibly
- A minimum of 3 years' ELT teaching experience, dealing with a range of learners including either adults or young learners and preferably some experience of teaching ESP / Exams course such as IELTS
- Native or Non-Native speaker of English
- Relevant English language teaching qualification
- Previous teacher training experience desirable

Budget: NTD 1,600-2,000/hour for actual presentation time

Please submit your CV to sandrawu@macmillan.com.tw